

MEPHISTO...

The First Terrorist...

By CANON GEORGES PANNETON, PRIEST

(Reprinted from Vers Demain)

I have just met Mephisto, disguised as Mandrake the Magician: ample black cape, top hat hiding his horns, flamboyant look. I recognized him by his diabolical grin. He crossed the street to come and greet me:

"I wish you a cursed 1971! Success in your undertakings, you d-d pastor! (sarcastic laugh) . . . As for myself, Mephisto, I am assured of success, especially since the Council. You know that I am the first terrorist in the religious domain. I succeeded my anti-Council with the support of a part of the clergy and of the progressive laymen: together we are demolishing your traditions. The Pope himself recognized my cleverness when he spoke of self-demolition in the Church . . . So you think that Heaven is strongest, do you? You make me laugh! Listen: you'll see that no one can resist my rage for destruction since the Lord has allowed me to ravage the world."

"Your Saint Peter isn't so stupid, you know. He said that I am a devouring lion, and it's true! And your Christ, who has refused to adore me already, consecrated me Prince of this world all the same. Look (sweeping gesture): all these cities belong to me. The crowd cries out: 'Bread and games!' as in ancient Rome. In your operas you sing, 'The Golden Calf is still standing: his power is incensed from one end of the world to the other.'"

"I have destroyed the Faith. The Pope himself admitted it in speaking of the crisis of the Faith."

If you were arrested for being a Christian, would there be enough evidence to convict you?

"I have destroyed Morality. My impure devils are everywhere triumphant."

"I have destroyed Religion. The churches are shutting down, blasphemy is replacing prayer."

"I have destroyed the Family. Generalized prostitution, massacres of innocents by abortion."

"But let me detail my VICTORIES. From crisis to crisis, MY TRIUMPHALISM is replacing Christ's."

The Crisis of Faith

"You see, I have opened a little door behind the Church marked Ecumenism. That's where I made my friends come in: Voltaire with his sneering, Lumiere with his corrupting movies, Luther with his liberty of thought, Marx with his atheistic communism, Marcuse with his nihilism, Lenin and Mao with their brain-washing, Freud with his psychoanalysis."

"But especially, I have succeeded in infiltrating heresy into the Church by tricking even religious and prelates (your Christ has predicted that I would even deceive the elect). Through the door of Ecumenism I have introduced Freemasonry with Father Riquet and Cardinal Cushing, the democratic spirit with Father Congar and Cardinal Suenens. I have introduced the Bishops of Holland with their heretical catechism translated into every language. Plus the troop of Catechetical and Pastoral teachers with their principal concerns: a big salary, spare time, sexology, love of the senses (which makes people forget the Love of God). Satan's victory: I have killed the Faith, I have killed God. Or rather: I am God!" (Burst of laughter repeated by the echo).

"I am also working to ruin the beauties of Creation. With my artist friends, I have everywhere imprinted my smirk upon the arts, architecture, poetry and music. I have demolished the intelligence of men with drugs, and now in their madness, men

Christ driving the money changers from the temple—Two thousand years later, International Bankers are still in control and the Christians are still hiding in the Upper Room for fear of the Jews. Let us implore Christ to drive our present-day money changers from planet earth.

are adoring Satan under his modern mask. Your wise Solomon, surrounded by his thousand women, said it: 'Infinite is the number of fools.'

The Crisis of Morality

"Success is a snatch here. Man is dominated by concern for his body and for his flesh. He makes a god of his belly (Paul said so). The only talk in advertisements is for skin care, carnal beauty, and naked women are shown (the soul is forgotten). Life has got to be enjoyed (eternity is forgotten). Sin, the devil and hell are only scarecrows for children. Corrupting movies display all the vices. Youth doesn't know the Commandments of God. Pornography sings the cult of animal man."

"Your Christian-Pagans feast Bacchus and Venus like they used to do in Rome and in Corinth, where a drunkard and a scandalous object were carried in procession. In the same way on the 8th of December, 1968, in Montreal, your young bellowed out their lewd whining right smack in the middle of Notre Dame Church."

"You have motorcycle gangs who proclaim themselves Sons of Satan and Hell Drivers. I brought them to their paroxysm in pop festivals. They prepare themselves for diabolical possession with drugs. Satan's victory!" (Sneering by Mephisto.)

Crisis of the Family

"I have struck the family at its source after having ruined parental authority. Divorce, the sterilizing pill, especially abortions by the millions, homosexuality, free love and fornication, the scorning of marriage and of chastity. Women are turned away from maternity and children are abandoned to evil instincts. The negation of original sin and its consequences, the development of a Godless personality. I will soon have finished with this damned race which thinks that it will take the place of the revolted Angels in Heaven."

The Crisis of Religion

"Here is my great success. I have succeeded in undressing priests and consecrated virgins. I have done away with the cassock and the religious habit. What a joy it is to see Christian women in the street dressed in shorts or miniskirts, bikinis on the beach, and soon monokinis like cows."

"I have even succeeded in undressing prelates. They are all done up like laymen. Little by little they are abandoning the marks of their dignity. Bishops are replacing their beautiful pectoral crosses with two crossed sticks — a false poverty, while they are wasting money elsewhere, 'the excrement of Satan,' like Papini said wanting to open Heaven up to me, the imbecile!"

"Now just let me recall a beautiful memory for you. In 1910, at the International Eucharistic Congress of Montreal, my friends the Freemasons at my inspiration sent a pig into the Procession of the Blessed Sacrament in front of the Bishop who was carrying the monstrance. Magnificent! Moreover, for this congress they had organized the coachmen to drive the visiting priests to brothels where they would have been photographed (what a lovely scandal). Unfortunately this project was aborted after the revelations of the masonic plot by Albert Lemieux (sickly smile from Mephisto)."

"You'll see: soon your beautiful churches will be demolished and you'll have to go back down into the Catacombs. The Celebration of the Word and the Family Supper will replace the Sacrifice-Mass which I hold in horror because that is what saves the world. First your churches will be transformed into meeting halls: dialogues, dancing to the tune of jazz with guitar and electric band like in night clubs. The organ, Latin and Gregorian Chant as well as classical polyphony are finished. That's retarded, outmoded. I am pushing for concubination and intercommunion of Catholic priests with Protestant ministers and Jewish rabbis."

"I repeat: everything must be desacralized, like in Soviet Russia. The Pope is imploring for the respect of the sacred in vain: no one listens anymore. Sacred vessels, and liturgical ornaments and clothes are sold in second-hand stores. Communion in the hand makes people drop parcels of Hosts on the floor and the Body of Christ is stepped upon underfoot (burst of laughter from Satan)."

"Women serving at the altar led to the marriage of priests. What a success! In ten years you lost 22 defrocked and married priests in such-and-such a diocese in the heart of Quebec. The Christian people have lost the respect of the priest, who has become a man like the rest. They have lost the respect for religious and nuns, who have become worldly after having denied the spirit of their holy founders."

If Christ were to return to this earth, the first thing he would do would be to get an injunction prohibiting "Christians" from using His name.

"Christian education, neutralized by the Ministry of Education, is everywhere being abandoned. The upcoming generation, without faith or law, will become terroristic and revolutionary. I will lead them to the gates of hell by suicide. Victory of Satan: the Catholic Province of Quebec will soon become a Communist and atheistic country."

"Then there will be the Third World War in which I will be able to engulf the damned by the millions. (Mephisto howls) Non serviam! Victory of Lucifer, the Antichrist, the Adversary of Christ! I am the King of the world! Sons of Satan, fight the sons of God! Take your stand before God (without genuflection) to sing the International: 'Arise, wretched of the earth! Take your paradise here-below: tomorrow you will be the damned of Hell!'"

Suddenly Satan shuts up, his lips twisted into a horrible grimace. He is paralyzed by a superior power. The Archangel Saint Michael has arisen before him and with his sword has sent him a smashing laser beam, crying out: "Who dares attack God?" . . . And the voice of the Archangel rolls on all the echos like thunder. Immediately a bomb explodes in a cloud of dark smoke and Mephisto, the first terrorist, has disappeared.

I awoke before a luminous facade where a magnificent Manger was shining: the Baby Jesus smiles at His Mother, the Immaculate Virgin. The Angels sing the final victory of the King of Love, the Prince of Peace. The faithful on their knees start singing the Gloria in Excelsis, and the Divine Child answers: "The powers of Hell will not prevail for I am with you all the days until the end of the world. . ."